Lebanon Valley College's 18th President
Dr. Lewis Evitts Thayne

In Loving Memory

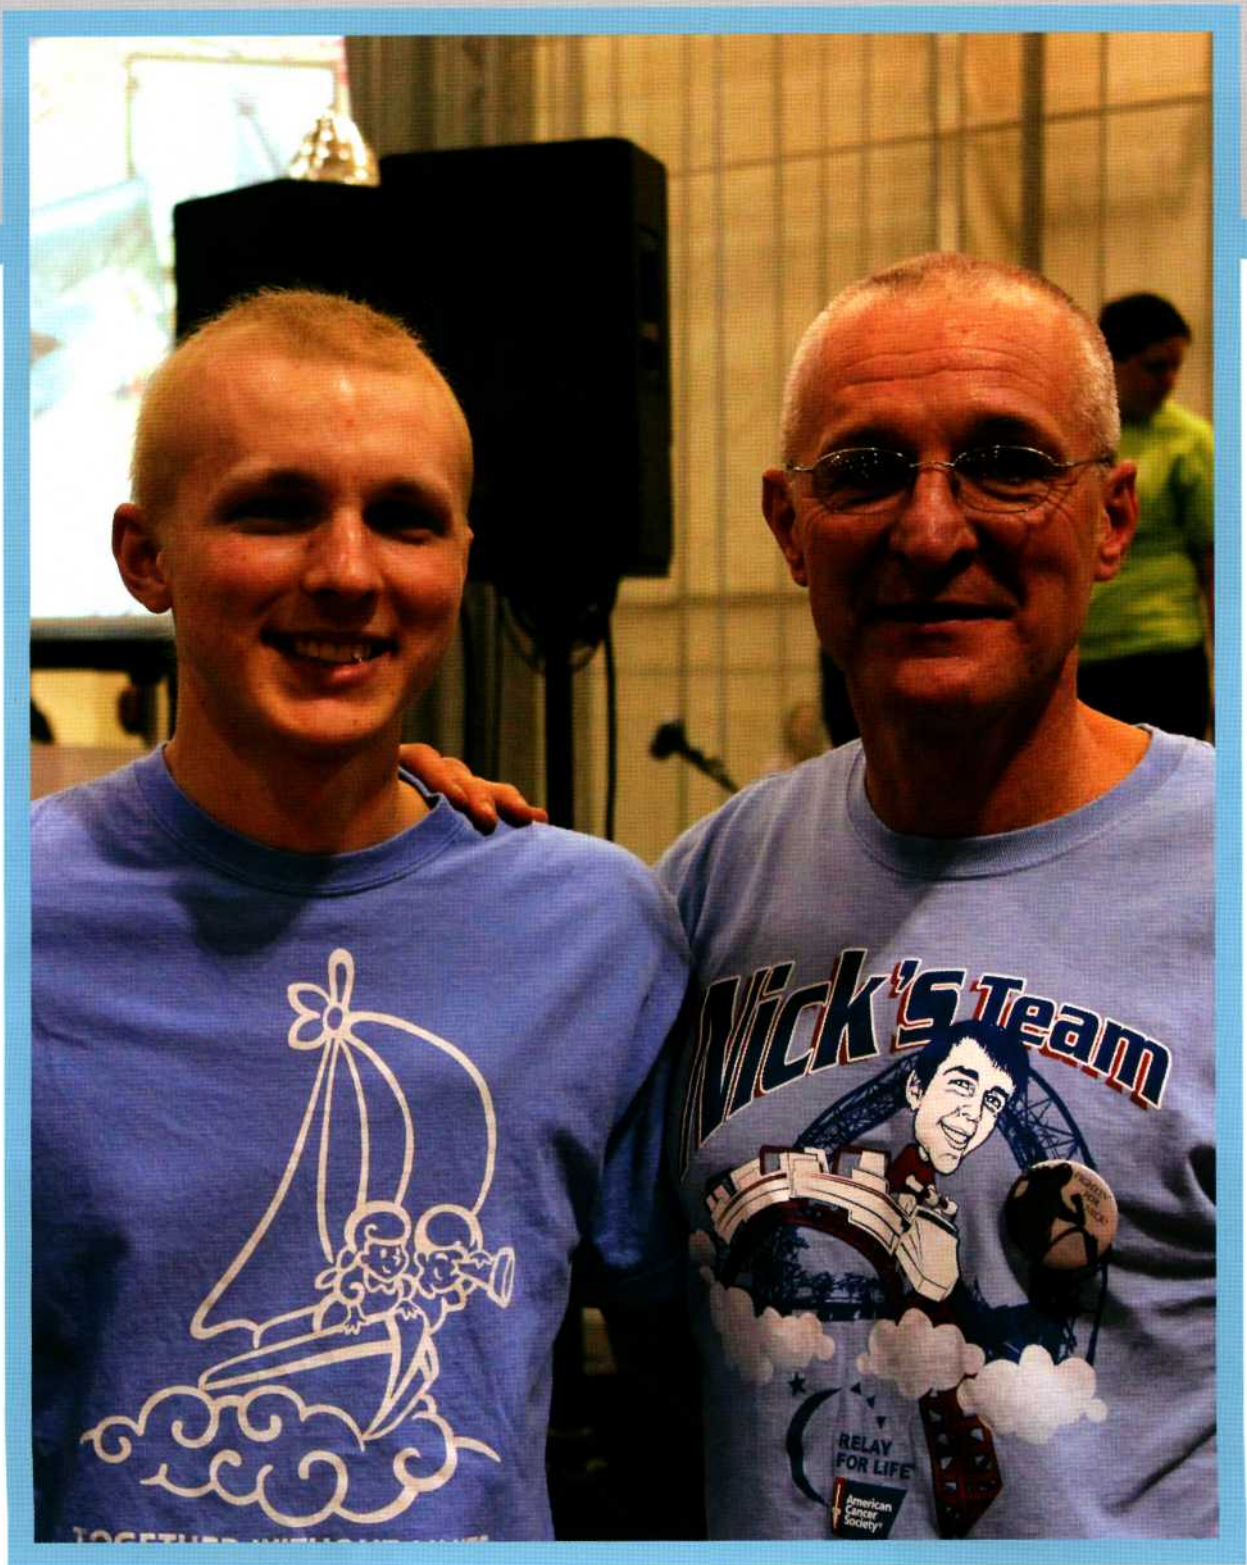

To the LVC Community:

On behalf of the Pantalone family, I want to thank the students, faculty, administration and friends for the love, prayer and support during our family's time of sorrow. Our son, Nick, really felt he was "home" at LVC, and we know why. As Nick battled his cancer, so many of you genuinely supported his fight by being a friend to him on a daily basis. Our family will be forever grateful.

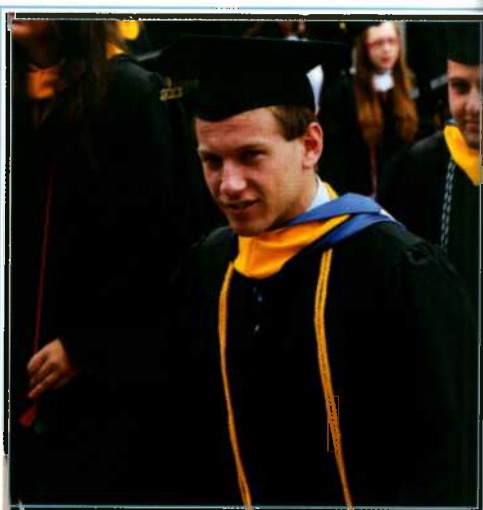

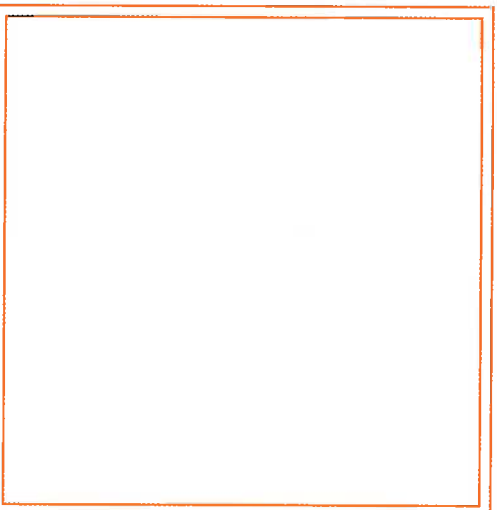

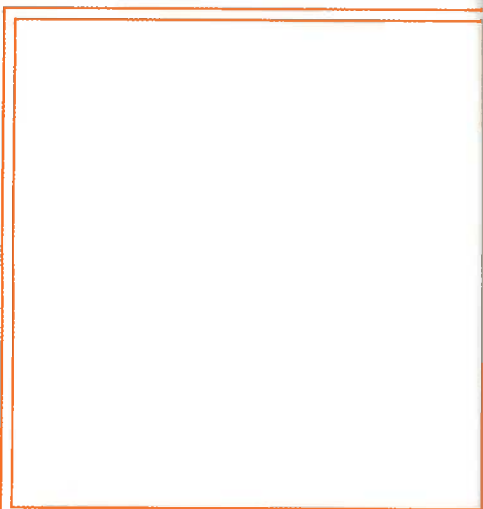

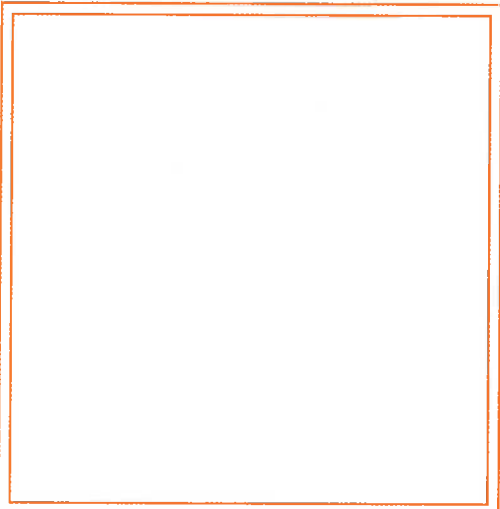

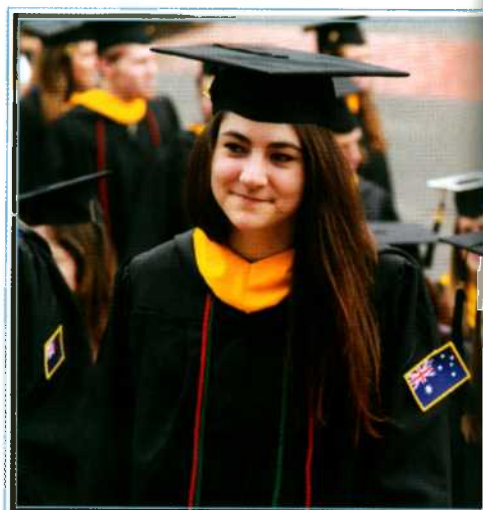

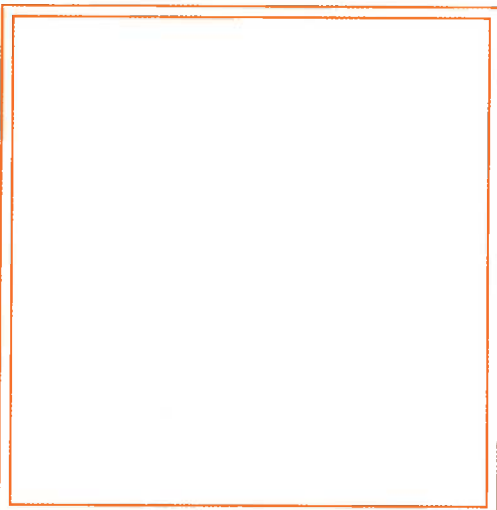

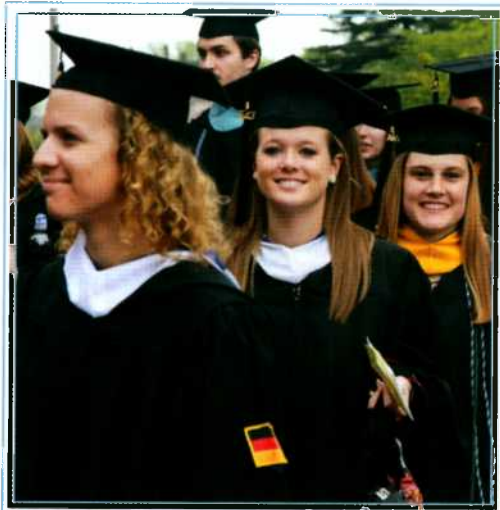

It is our hope that you will remember Nick as we remember him - A young man who lived each day with a purpose, fought his daily battles with a smile and hope, and passed from this world to a better place. God bless you.

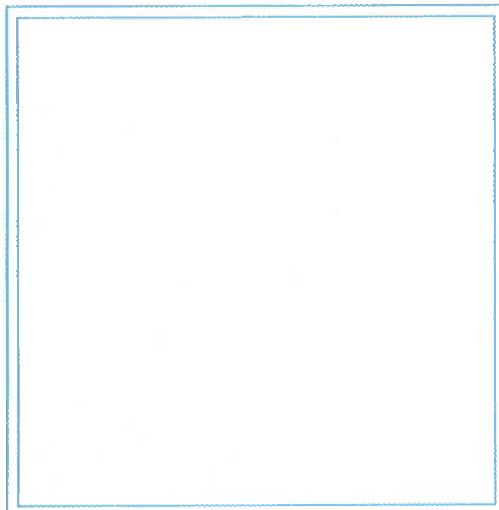

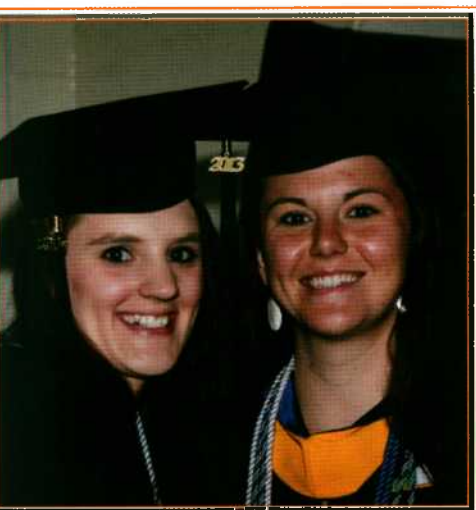

Sincerely,

Coach Vince Pantalone

Orientation

2012

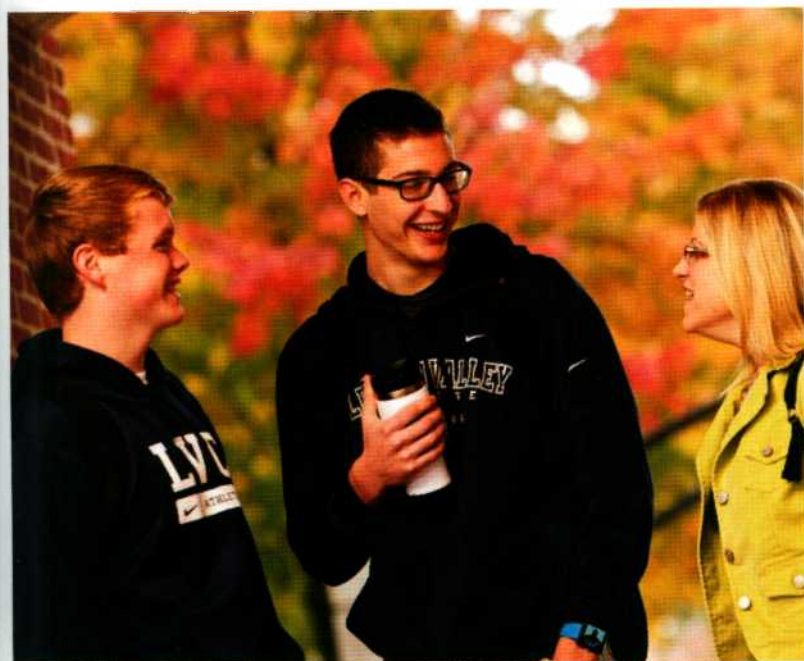

LVC welcomes its new and returning students on Orientation 2012.

Underclassmen

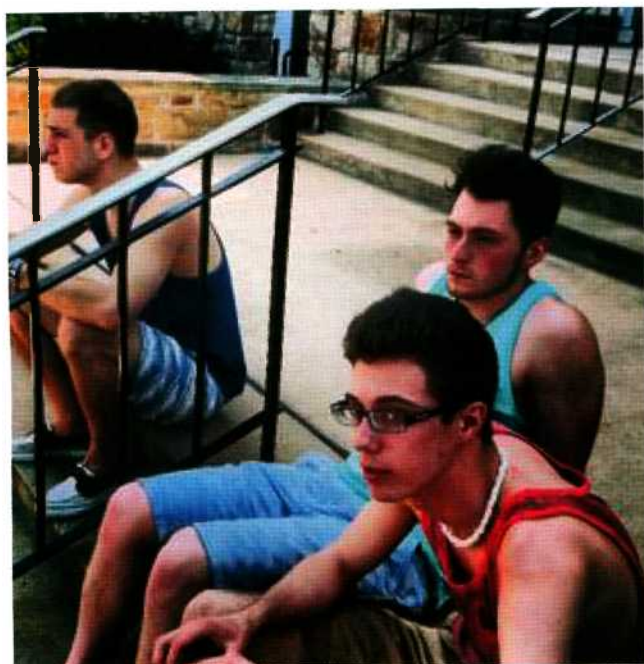

Underclassmen

Homecoming

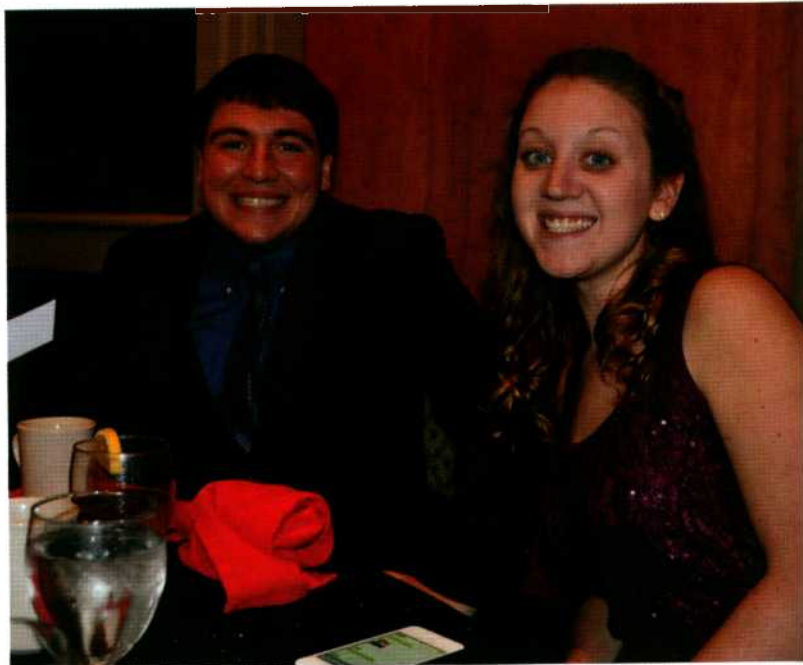

Homecoming 2012 was part of Octoberfest weekend, from October 12th-13th. In the homecoming game, LVC played against Wilkes University and won 21-13. During halftime Jeffrey Zimmerman and Heidi Metzler were crowned Homecoming king and queen.

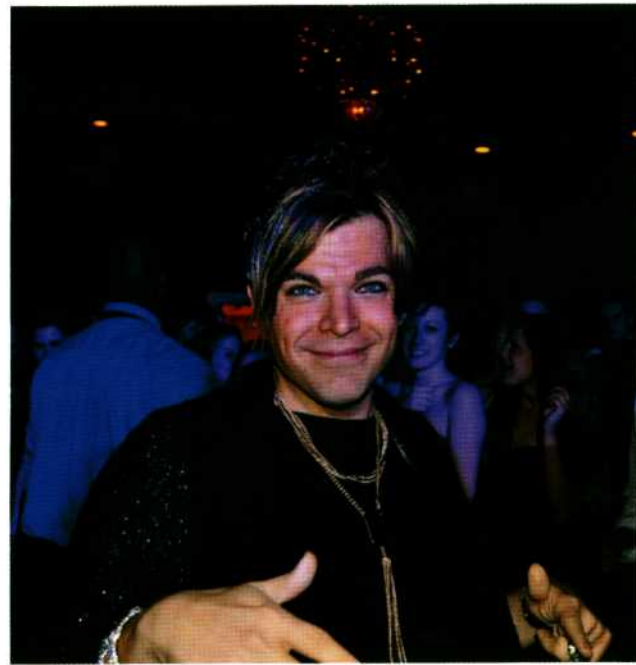

Winter Formal 2012

The 2012 Winter Formal theme was "International Affair." This years formal was held on November 30th at the Grantville Holiday Inn. The formal was organized by the sophomore class student government.

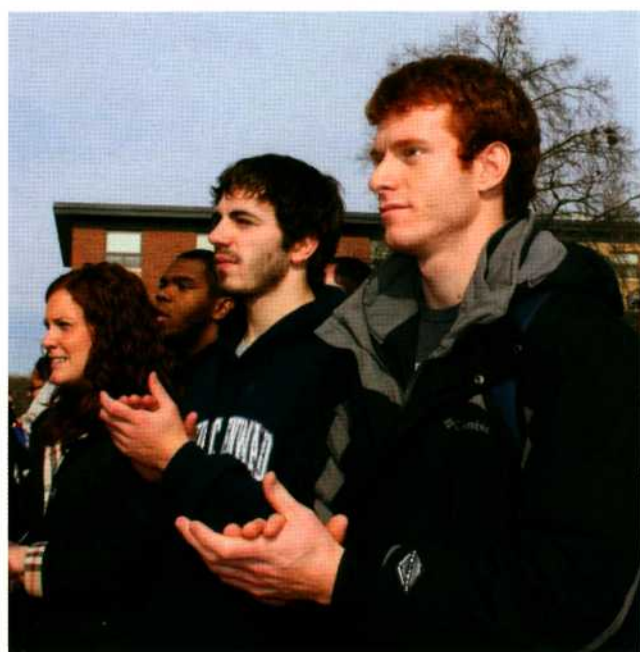

Unity March

On Thursday, Nov. 15, 2012, students of Lebanon Valley College organized a Unity March to unite the Lebanon Valley College Campus and Community in support of acceptance, love, and peace for all people.

Dutchmen Day

On April 9th, LVC celebrated its 11th annual Dutchmen Day, a student-initiated event first held in spring 2002. As always, students woke up on the surprise Dutchmen Day to find that classes had been cancelled and replaced with a full day of fun events involving the entire campus community.

ValleyTest

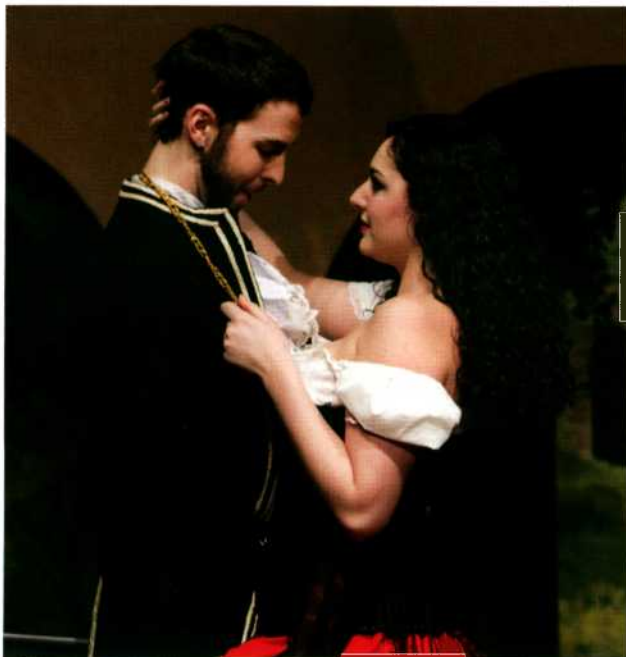

ValleyFest is Lebanon Valley College's annual spring arts festival, which is almost completely student run and planned. In addition to student performers, ValleyFest 2013 also featured singer Tyler Hilton and rapper and recording artist Sammy Adams.

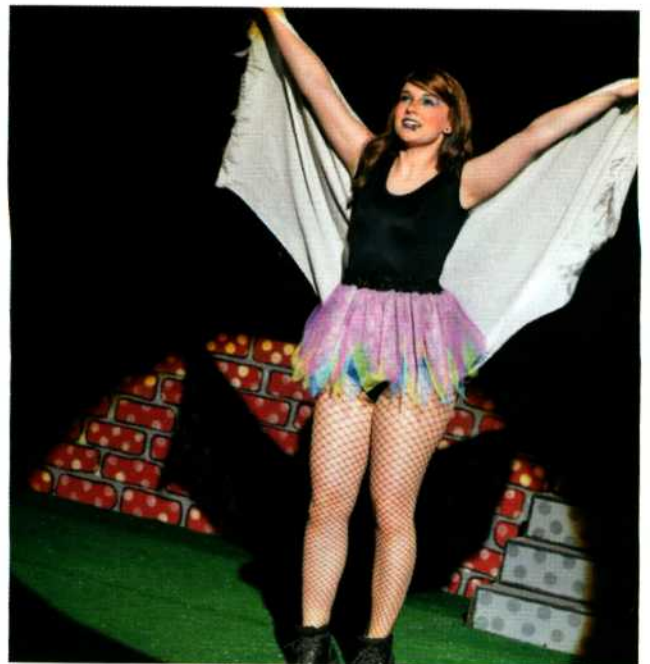

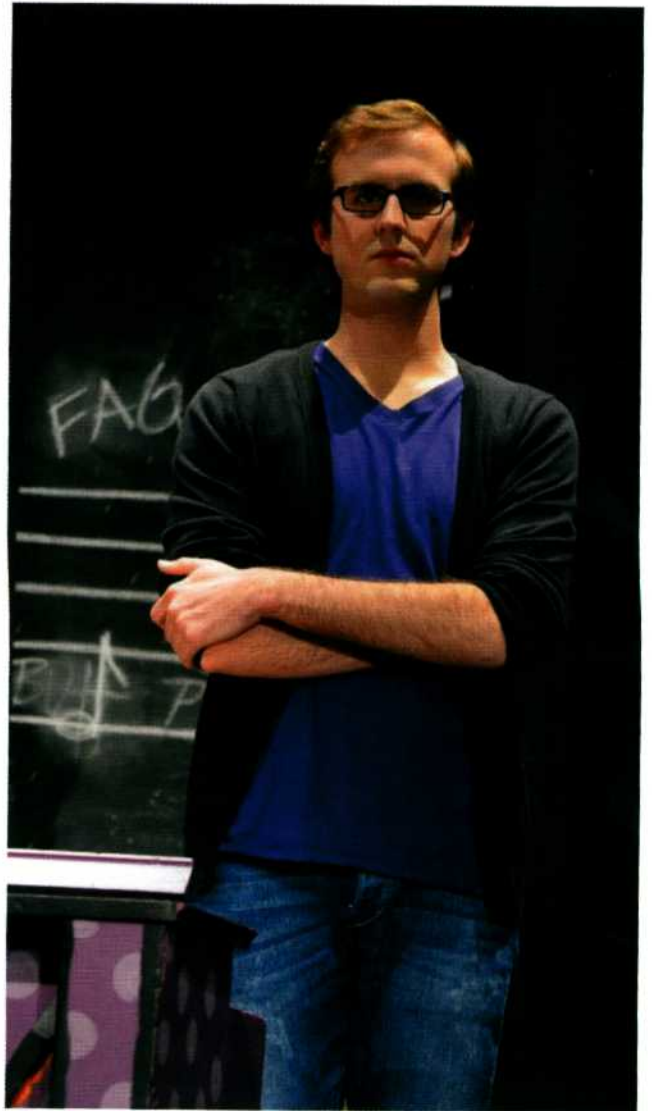

Wig & Buckle

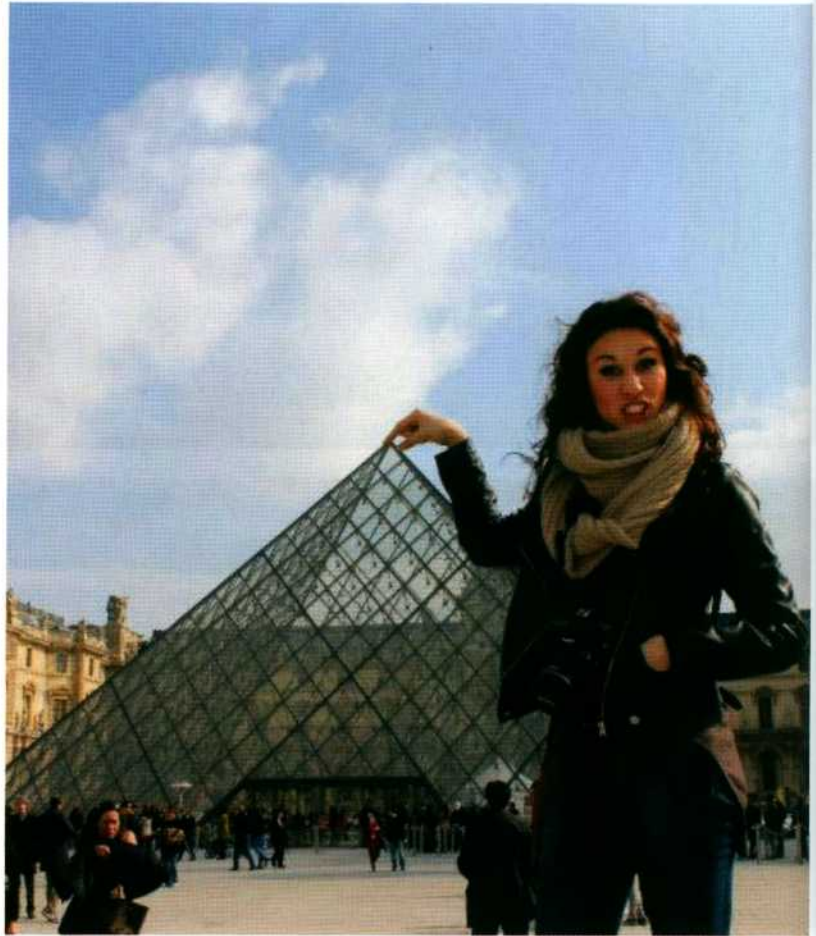

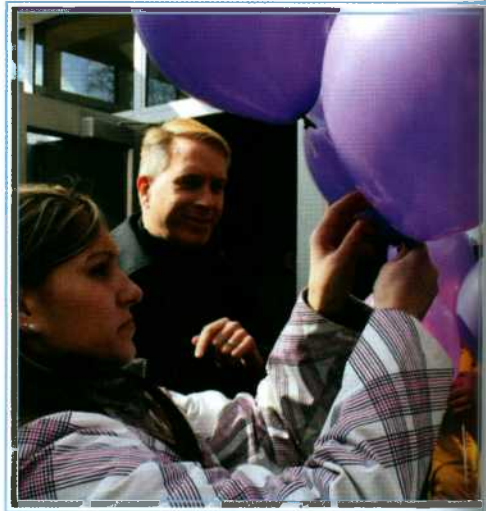

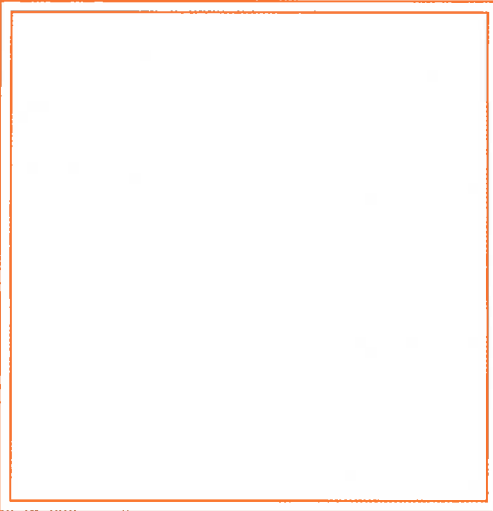

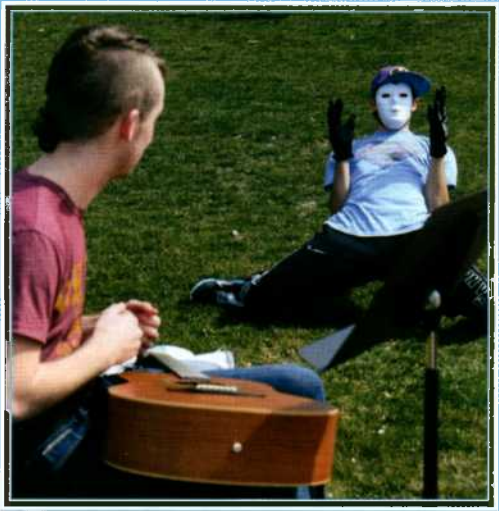

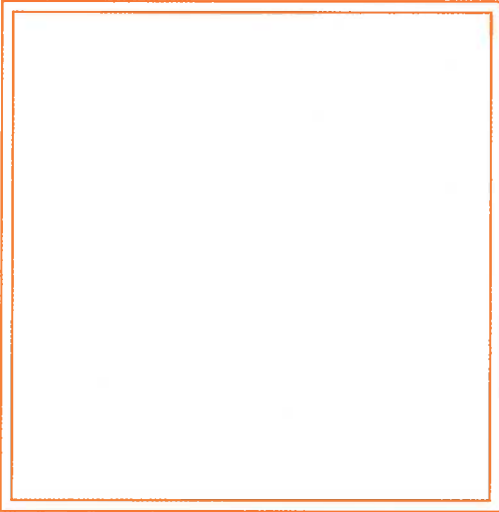

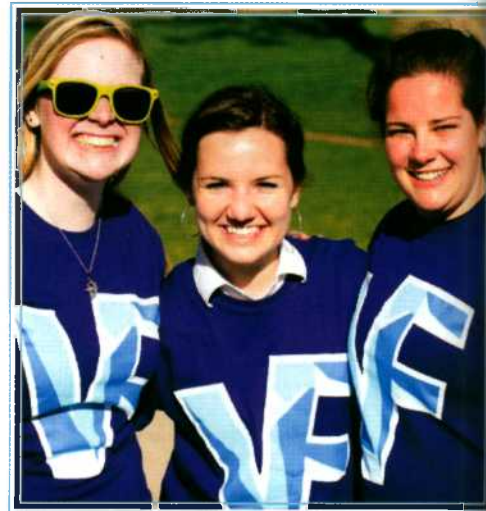

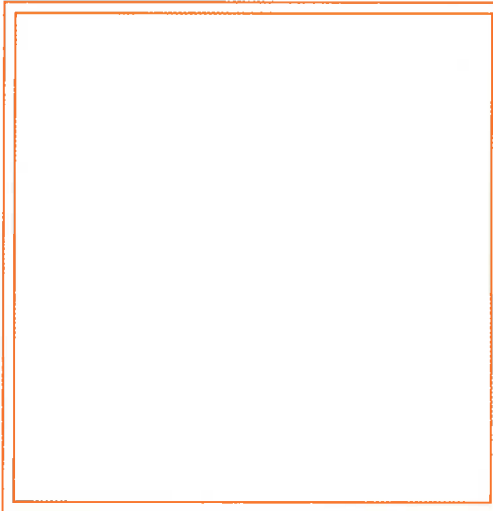

The Wig and Buckle Theater Company was founded in 1935, and is the oldest student organization on campus that has been continuously operational. During the 2012-2013 school year, performances have included Into The Woods, Comedy of Errors, & Dog Sees God.

PAIGE DILLER, STEPHANIE COSGROVE, PATTY KEEFER, KELSEY SEAMAN, SETH MILLER, DOMINICK DUVERNOIS, JACQUELINE COE, MY DUNG TRAN, KIRSTEN MARTZALL, LAUREN FULMER

The Accounting Club is a student organization for all accounting majors. The goals are to provide a means for accounting majors to further their knowledge of and interest in accounting. Throughout the year, students are able to network with guest speakers from several industries such as public accounting firms, governmental/health care agencies and the sports and private sector. They have made many field trips to local business, such as Harley Davidson, Fulton Bank, Pepperidge Farms, and Crayola. They run a Stock Market Game, open to all students, with prizes for winners. In addition, they have brought in speakers, helped with department activities (Career Day, Mentoring Program, Etiquette Seminar), and sponsored an interviewing workshop.

Student Government is comprised of 36 full-time students. 27 upper-class students are elected from the student body each spring for a one-year term beginning in September. This includes 4 class officers, 4 class representatives and a commuter representative from each returning class. In addition, nine first-year students are elected in September. Student Government officers are elected each spring from among the 27 upperclass students. Students on disciplinary or academic probation are ineligible for election.

Sheryl Klus and Maurissa Laudeman encourage others to "Celebrate Diversity."

Wig and Buckle

The Wig and Buckle Theater Company is a Lebanon Valley College tradition that was founded in 1935. It currently produces three performances each year, two plays and one musical. Each production is student directed and entirely student run. Membership is open to all students interested in any aspect of dramatics and theater production. Wig and Buckle meets every Monday at 4 PM in Leedy Theater in the Mund College Center. All are welcome.

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is a professional acting social Fraternity for men interested in music. A national Fraternity, this organization has among its members some of the leading conductors, composers, and musical performers in the country. Consideration for membership is open to any male student in good academic standing with an appreciation for music. The Iota Kappa chapter, founded at the College in 1960, has received the Charles E. Lutten Award for the best chapter in the state. Sinfonia sponsors the annual Reynaldo Rovers All-American concert, a high school jazz festival, and the spring musical in cooperation with the Wig and Buckle Theater Company.

Phi Sigma Sigma

Phi Sigma Sigma is a national sorority that received recognition by the College in 1996. The sorority strives to create an environment that fosters the advancement of womanhood and the growth and development of each member. Phi Sigma Sigma sisters participate in philanthropic service each year.

Sigma Alpha Iota

Sigma Alpha Iota, a nationally recognized professional women's music Fraternity, strives to further the cause of music through the development of talent. The Delta Alpha chapter, established at the College in 1961, admits women with a 2.5 or higher GPA and a strong interest in music. SAI sponsors campus concerts and co-sponsors the spring musical with Sinfonia and Alpha Phi Omega.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

The brothers of Tau Kappa Epsilon "TKE" believe in the ideals of love, charity and esteem. Through their day-to-day lives they are committed to helping college students graduate from Lebanon Valley College, knowing they will succeed at whatever they do in the future.

Alpha Sigma Tau

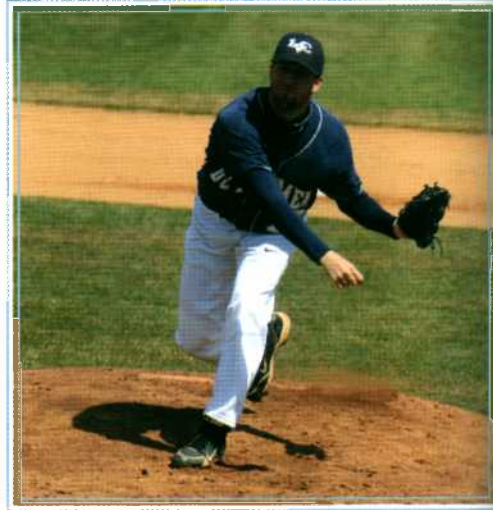

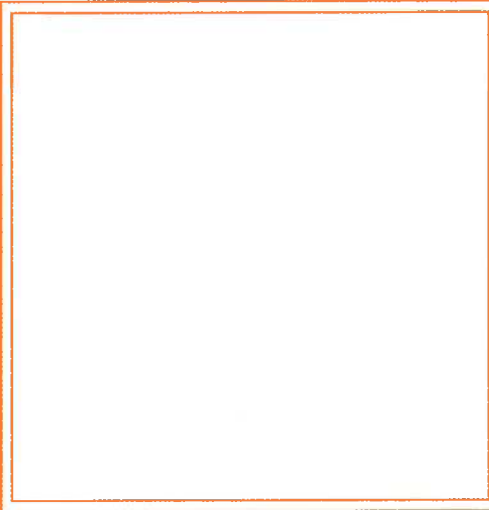

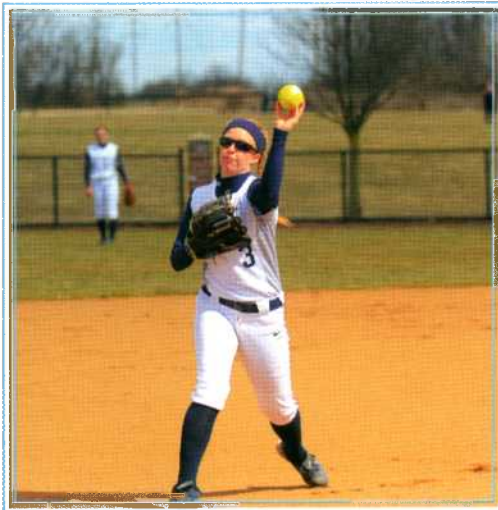

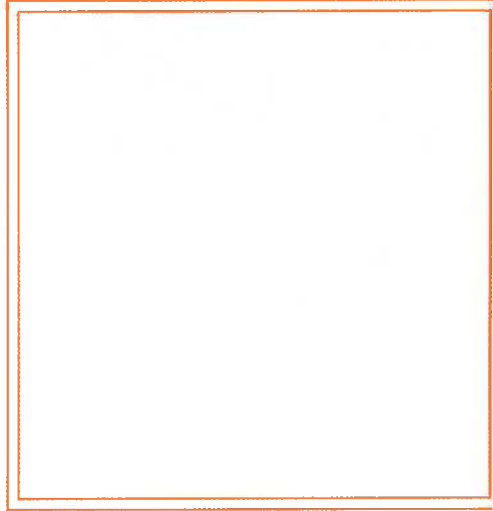

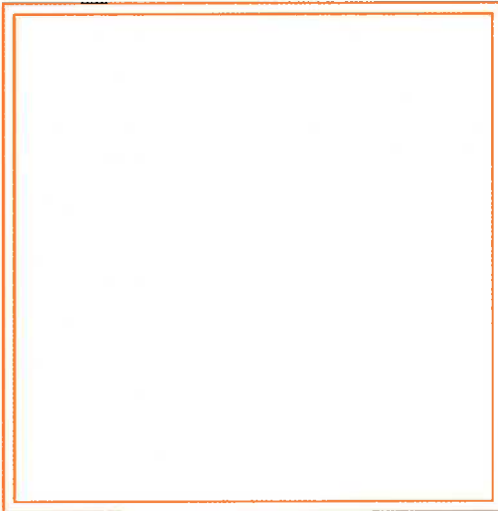

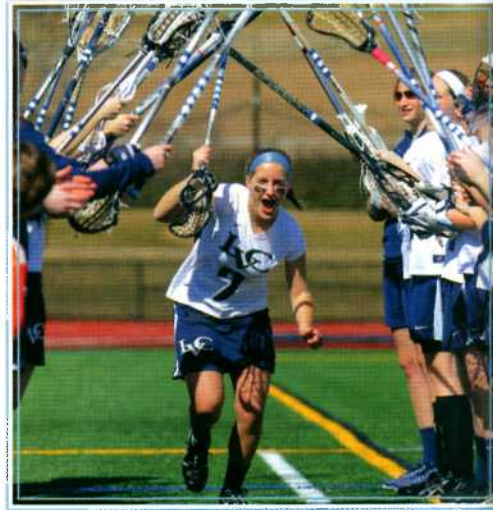

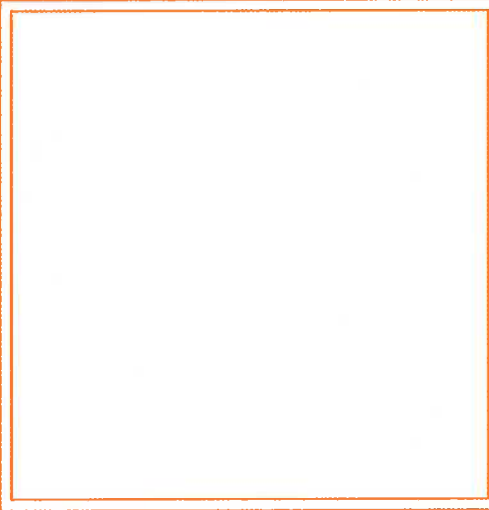

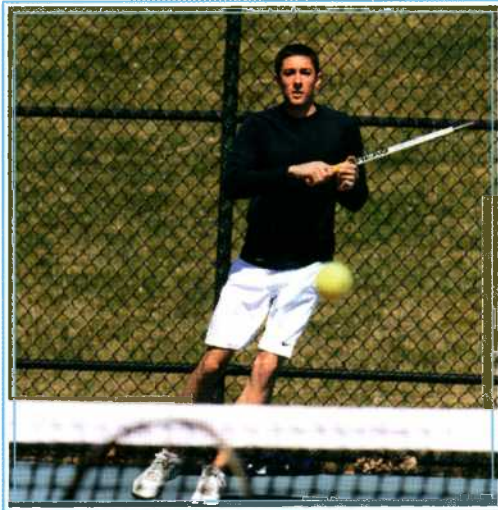

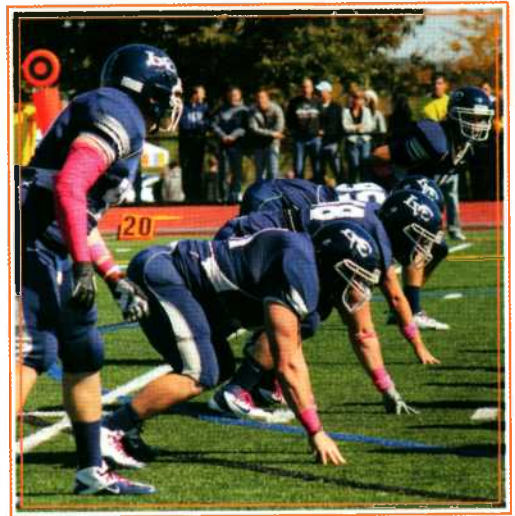

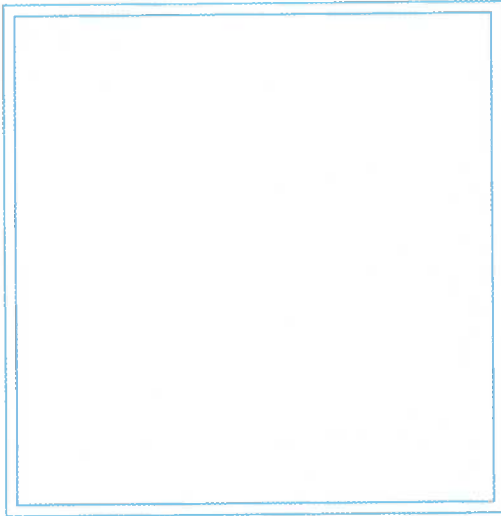

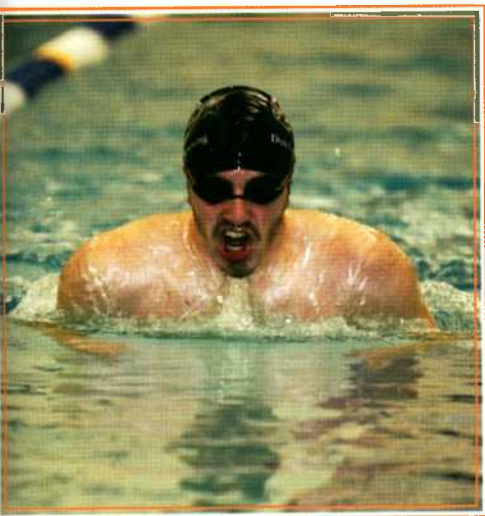

Alpha Sigma Tau, Gamma Tau chapter, is the first national social sorority to receive recognition by the College, and was formally accepted into the national organization in 1992. AST strives to promote the cultural, ethical, and social development of its members as well as encourage social life on campus.
